UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff, v. BARRY LAMAR BONDS, Defendant.	Criminal No. CR 07-0732 SI UNITED STATES' MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE OVERSIZED BRIEF AND [PROPOSED] ORDER Date: February 5, 2009 Time: 10:30 a.m. Judge: Honorable Susan Illston

The government hereby moves the Court for an order granting leave to the United States to file an oversized brief in this matter in opposition to the defendant's Motion In Limine To Exclude Evidence. The government's Opposition to Defendant's Motion In Limine To Exclude Evidence is 53 pages. The reason for this request is that the defendant's motion seeks to exclude a voluminous amount of evidence based upon multiple legal theories. Indeed, the defendant also required this Court's permission to exceed the page limit on its original motion in order to cover all of the challenged evidence. In order to address all of the defense arguments and respond in a complete and thorough manner, the United States has had to set forth all of the challenged evidence along with the various bases for admissibility for each piece of evidence. That presentation and analysis requires a lengthy brief in opposition to the defense motion.
